- (e) A reference to a clause, sub-clause, paragraph, or subparagraph is a reference to a clause, sub-clause, paragraph or sub-paragraph of this Constitution.
- (f) A reference to any legislation or to any provision of any legislation includes any modification or re-enactment of it, any legislative provision substituted for it, and all regulations and statutory instruments issued under it.
- (g) A reference to '$' or 'dollars' is to currency of the Commonwealth of Australia.
- (h) An expression has, in a provision of this Constitution which relates to a particular provision of the Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Act.
- (i) The words 'includes' and 'including' are not words of limitation, and do not and must not be taken as detracting from the generality of any provisions of this Constitution.

2. Replaceable Rules

The replaceable rules contained in the Act do not apply to the Company.

3. Company Limited by Guarantee

- (a) The Company is a company limited by guarantee.
- (b) The liability of the Members is limited.
- (c) Each Voting Member undertakes to contribute to the property of the Company if the Company is wound up while he or she is a Member or within one year after he or she ceases to be a Member, for payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he or she ceases to be a Member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required, but not exceeding $1.

4. Objects

- (a) The Company has been established to promote, carry and encourage the racing of thoroughbred horses and other incidental related purposes and to carry on any other activity which is calculated directly or indirectly to enhance or further the interests of thoroughbred horse racing.
 - (i) to provide facilities of, and incidental to, conducting a thoroughbred racing club and thoroughbred race meetings, functions, meetings, sporting and social events, markets, restaurant and liquor facilities or any activity nominated by the Board;
 - (ii) to promote the ideals of the sport of thoroughbred horse racing and fellowship among those interested and involved in thoroughbred horse racing;
 - (iii) to amalgamate, co-operate, affiliate or appoint representatives and enter into arrangements with any other club or body whether incorporated or unincorporated having objects wholly or in part similar to those of the Club.
- (b) The Company may undertake such other activities not inconsistent with the objectives set out in clause 4(a) to enhance, promote or protect the interests of the Company.

5. Actions under the Law

Where the Act authorises or permits a company to do any matter or thing if so authorised or permitted by its constitution, the Company is taken by this clause to be authorised or permitted to do that matter or thing, despite any other provisions of this Constitution.

6. Membership

6.1 Register of Members

- (a) The Chief Executive must keep the Register, which must contain the full names and addresses of the Members, and other such particulars as the Board may prescribe or as are required by any relevant law from time to time.
- (b) Every Member is required to communicate any change in his or her address to the Company in writing and any such change of address must be entered in the Register. The latest address in the Register is deemed to be the Member's registered address.

6.2 Application for Membership

An application for membership must:

- (a) be made in a form determined by the Board from time to time;
- (b) be signed by the applicant; and

6.3 Employees and persons holding licences under the Rules of Racing

- (a) Employees of the Company cannot be admitted as Members while employed by the Company nor can an employee be admitted as a Member for a period of 12 months from the date that such employment ceases. If an employee is already a member prior to employment or from the date of the adoption of the 2021 Constitution being 22 February 2021, that employee's membership will be suspended until 12 months from the date that such employment ceases.
- (b) A person holding a licence under the Rules of Racing ("Licence Holder") cannot be admitted as a Voting Member nor be admitted as a Voting Member for a period of 12 months from the date that such person ceases being a Licence Holder. If a Licence Holder is already a voting member prior to the adoption of the 2021 Constitution being 22 February 2021, that Licence Holder's membership will be suspended until 12 months from the date that such person ceases being a Licence Holder.

6.4 Admission of Members

- (a) The Board will hold a meeting to determine applications for membership at such time as the Directors see fit.
- (b) All Directors must be provided with notice of a person's application for membership, prior to the Board determining that person's application for membership.

- (c) An applicant for membership of the Company is to be admitted as a Member on the approval of the Board and upon payment by the applicant of the applicable Joining Fee (if any) and the first Subscription.
- (d) The Board is not required to give any reason for rejecting or accepting an application for membership.
- (e) When an applicant has been accepted for membership, the Chief Executive (or other person whom the Board may appoint) must notify the applicant of the acceptance.
- (f) If the applicant does not pay the applicable Joining Fee within the time prescribed by the Board, the acceptance of the applicant's application for membership is cancelled, unless the Board decides otherwise.
- (g) If an applicant is rejected, any monies paid in relation to joining fee or subscription will be returned in full.
- (h) An applicant is deemed to be a member upon the date of Board approval, providing all fees are paid.

6.5 Classes of Members

Membership of the Club consists of:

- a) Full Members;
- b) Life Members;
- c) Honorary Members;
- d) Corporate members; and
- e) Such other classes of membership as the Board may from time to time determine.

6.6 Full Members

- a) Subject always to Clause 7, any natural person having reached majority may apply in the manner set out in Clause 7 to be admitted as a Full Member.
- b) Natural persons admitted as Full Members are entitled upon payment of the Entrance Fee and the Annual Subscription to all of the benefits of membership, including but not limited to:
 - (i) the rights set out in the By-laws in respect of Full members; and

- (ii) the right to attend, speak and vote at General Meetings provided those full members elected as members shall not have the right to vote in general meetings nor to participate in, stand for election or vote in the election of Board Members until they have been members of the club for a continuous period of 1 year.

6.7 Life Members

- a) Any Member who in the opinion of the Board has rendered distinguished service to the Club may be elected as a Life Member of the Club by a majority of the Members present at a General Meeting of the Club.
- b) Persons elected as Life members are entitled to all of the benefits afforded to Full Members, including but not limited to the right to attend, speak and vote at General Meetings notwithstanding that they might not have been a Life Member for a continuous period of one year.
- c) Persons elected as Life members are not liable to pay the Entrance Fee or the Annual Subscription.

6.8 Honorary Members

- a) The board may elect any person as an honorary member of the Club.
- b) The following provisions apply to persons elected to Honorary Membership:
 - (i) their rights and entitlements are as determined from time to time by the Board;
 - (ii) their number is as determined from time to time by the Board;
 - (iii) they are bound by this constitution and the By-Laws save as otherwise provided by this Clause 5.4;
 - (iv) they are not entitled to attend or vote at any general meeting; and
 - (v) they are not liable to pay any Entrance Fee or Annual Subscription.

6.9 Corporate Membership

- a) The Board may grant Corporate Membership to any corporation, partnership or business entity in its discretion.
- b) Corporate Membership does not include any entitlement to receive notices of or to attend, speak or vote at, General Meetings.
- c) The amounts payable by, and benefits available to, Corporate members are as specified in the by-Laws.

7. Membership Fees

7.1 Joining Fee

- (a) The Board may determine that a Joining Fee is payable by an applicant for membership of the Company.
- (b) The Board may determine the amount of the Joining Fee from time to time.
- (c) The Board may prescribe different amounts, suspend or waive the payment of the Joining Fee in respect of any person or category of person applying to become a Member.

7.2 Annual Subscription

- (a) The Board may determine that a Subscription is payable annually, by instalments or otherwise.
- (b) The Board may determine the amount of the Subscription from time to time.
- (c) The Board may prescribe different amounts, suspend or waive the payment of the Subscription in respect of any Member or applicant for membership of the Company.

7.3 Non-payment of Annual Subscription

- (a) If a Member's Subscription remains unpaid after it becomes due, the Board may direct the Chief Executive to give notice to the Member of that fact.
- (b) If the Subscription remains unpaid on the expiration of a period determined by the Board after the date of the notice, the Board may suspend or expel the Member from membership of the Company and, if applicable, remove the Member's name from the Register. The date of expiration will be set out in the By-Laws.
- (c) A Member is not entitled to exercise any rights of membership until that Member has paid his or her Subscription in full or as otherwise determined by the Board, and a Member whose membership of the Company has been suspended is not entitled to exercise any rights of membership until that suspension has ended.

8. Cessation of Membership

8.1 Resignation of a Member

A Member may at any time, by giving notice in writing to the Chief Executive, resign as a Member. The resignation is effective from the date of receipt of the notice by the Chief Executive. That Member's name must be removed from the Register.

8.2 Misconduct of a Member

Without limiting clause 8.3, if any Member:

- (a) is in breach of the provisions of this Constitution or a Club Rule or Code of Conduct; or
- (b) is guilty of any act or omission which, in the opinion of the Board, is unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the interests of the Company, the Board may suspend or expel the Member from membership of the Company and, if applicable, remove the Member's name from the Register.

8.3 Suspension or Expulsion

The Board must not suspend or expel a Member under clause 8.2, unless:

- (a) reasonable notice has been given to the Member, stating the date, time and place at which the question of suspension or expulsion of that Member is to be considered by the Board, and the nature of the alleged breach or act or omission; and
- (b) the Member has been provided with an opportunity to address the Board in respect of the alleged breach or act or omission.

8.4 Other Grounds for Cessation of Membership

A Member automatically ceases to be a Member if that Member:

- (a) dies;
- (b) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the laws relating to mental health; or
- (c) becomes bankrupt.

8.5 Re-admission

A person who ceases to be a Member under clause 8.4(c) is entitled to reapply for membership of the Company once that person has discharged his or her bankruptcy and may be re-admitted as a Member at the discretion of the Board.

9. Meetings

9.1 Power to Convene General Meetings

The Board may at any time convene a general meeting of the Company.

9.2 Convening of General Meetings by Voting Members

The Board must call and arrange to hold a general meeting if required to do so under the Act, noted as:

- a) Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the company may call, and arrange to hold, a general meeting. The members calling the meeting must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting.
- b) The meeting must be called in the same way--so far as is possible--in which general meetings of the company may be called.
- c) The percentage of votes that members have is to be worked out as at the midnight before the meeting is called.

9.3 Annual General Meetings

The Company must hold an annual general meeting at least once in each calendar year and within 5 months after the end of the company financial year.

- (a) to consider the financial statements and related reports for the preceding year;
- (b) to discuss the general business of the Company; and
- (c) to transact any other business which under this Constitution or the Act ought to be transacted at an annual general meeting.

9.4 Notices of Meetings

- (a) A notice of a general meeting must:
 - (i) specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and must state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - (ii) contain any other information required by the Act; and
 - (iii) be issued not less than 21 days from the date of the meeting.
- (b) The non-receipt of a notice convening a general meeting by, or the accidental omission to give notice to, any person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate the proceedings at, or any resolution passed at that meeting.

9.5 Quorum

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Voting Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided for in this Constitution.
- (c) 10 Voting Members present constitutes a quorum.

9.6 If Quorum Not Present

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the general meeting:

- (a) where the meeting was convened on the requisition of Voting Members, the proposed meeting is dissolved;
- (b) in any other case:
 - (i) the meeting stands adjourned to a day and at a time and place as the Board decides or if no decision is made by the Board, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - (ii) if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

9.7 Chair of Meetings

(a) Subject to clause 9.7(b), the Chair of the Board or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair must preside as chair at every general meeting.

(b) Where a general meeting is held and:

- (i) there is no Chair or Vice-Chair; or
- (ii) the Chair or Vice-Chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting;

the Directors present must choose one of the Directors present to chair the meeting.

(c) In the absence of all Directors, a Voting Member elected by the meeting must chair the meeting.

9.8 Adjournments

(a) The chair of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(b) The chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting for a period not exceeding one hour without the consent of the meeting.

(c) No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

(d) It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

9.9 Conduct at a General Meeting

- (a) Subject to the Act and any laws and By-Laws, the chair of the meeting may give necessary directions for the conduct of any meeting and the ruling of the chair of the meeting is final (including, but not limited to, rulings in respect of a right to vote or the appointment of a proxy and any declaration as to whether or not a resolution has been carried.
- (b) Any question requiring a decision must be in the form of a motion which must be submitted in writing and be proposed and seconded before being discussed.

9.10 Voting at General Meetings

- (a) Any resolution to be put to a vote at a general meeting is to be determined by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded.
- (b) A declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the fact without the need to show the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (c) A poll for a resolution may be demanded by:
 - (i) the chair of the meeting; or
 - (ii) as otherwise provided for by the Act.
- (d) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

9.11 Procedure for Poll

- (a) Subject to the Act and any Club Rules, a poll must be taken in the manner and at the time the chair of the meeting directs.
- (b) The result of the poll is a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (c) The demand for a poll does not prevent a meeting from continuing for the transaction of any business other than that on which a poll has been demanded.

9.12 Chair's Casting Vote

In the case of an equality of votes on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any deliberative vote to which the chair may be entitled as a Voting Member.

9.13 Representation and Voting of Members

Subject to this Constitution:

- (a) Voting Members entitled to attend and vote at general meetings, may attend and vote in person or by proxy or attorney. A Voting Member which is a corporation may appoint an individual as a representative;
- (b) on a show of hands, every Voting Member Present having the right to vote at the meeting has one vote; and
- (c) on a poll, every Voting Member Present having the right to vote at the meeting has one vote.

9.14 Restriction on Voting Rights – Unpaid Amounts

A Voting Member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all sums due and payable by the Voting Member in respect of membership in the Company have been paid.

9.15 Objections to Qualification to Vote

- (a) An objection to a person's qualification to vote may be raised only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered.
- (b) Any objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (c) A vote allowed after an objection is valid for all purposes.

9.16 Proxies

- (a) A Voting Member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a general meeting may appoint another person as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Voting Member at the meeting.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy must:
 - (i) be in writing;
 - (ii) signed by the Voting Member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, or signed by such a Voting Member under power of attorney;
 - (iii) state the full name, registered address, and membership number of the Voting Member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting; and
 - (iv) state the meeting at which the appointment may be used.
- (c) The Board has the power to prescribe the form of an instrument appointing a proxy from time to time. In the absence of a prescribed form of proxy, any instrument appointing a proxy that complies with the requirements contained within this Constitution is valid.

- (d) An instrument appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution, and where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the instrument.
- (e) In the absence of any direction contained in the instrument appointing a proxy specifying the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution, the proxy may vote as the proxy thinks fit on any motion or resolution.

9.17 Lodgement of Proxies

- (a) For an instrument appointing a proxy to be valid, the instrument appointing the proxy must be received by the Company (at the Office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting) no less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote.
- (b) For an instrument appointing an attorney to act on behalf of a Voting Member at all general meetings or at all meetings for a specified period to be effective, the following documents must be received by the Company at any time before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the attorney proposes to vote:
 - (i) the power of attorney or a certified copy of that power of attorney; and
 - (ii) any evidence that the Board requires to establish the validity and non-revocation of that power of attorney.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Company receives these documents when they are received at any of the following:
 - (i) the Office;
 - (ii) a fax number at the Office; or
 - (iii) a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of the meeting.

9.18 Validity of Proxies

A vote exercised in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or a power of attorney is valid despite:

- (a) the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the appointing Voting Member; or
- (b) the revocation of the instrument (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or the power,

if no notice in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind, or revocation has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.

10. Board

10.1 The Board of Directors

- (a) Subject to clause 10.3A, the Board is to consist of:
 - (i) 4 Elected Directors; and
 - (ii) 3 Independent Directors.
- (b) The Directors may act as the Board despite a vacancy in their number of either class of Director.
- (c) If the Board is reduced below the minimum fixed for a quorum for a meeting of the Board, the continuing Directors may only act in the case of an emergency until such time as a replacement Director is appointed in accordance with clause 10.3(c) or 10.5(c).

10.2 Board to manage Company

The management and control of the business and affairs of the Company are vested in the Board. The Board may exercise all powers of the Company which are not, by the Act or this Constitution, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

10.3 Elected Directors

- (a) The Elected Directors whose terms of appointment have expired must retire at the Annual General Meeting at the end of the term of their appointment and the equivalent number of Voting Members must be elected at that meeting as Elected Directors for terms of four years. Retiring Elected Directors will be eligible for re-election as Elected Directors and are not required to be re-nominated.
- (b) Subject to clause 10.3A, if a Vote for the election of Elected Directors is required it will be conducted in accordance with the By-Laws in the manner as the Board determines and shall take place in the following manner:
 - (i) nominations must be made in writing, signed by two Voting Members of the Club and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and
 - (ii) delivered to the Chief Executive of the Club not less than 28 days before the date fixed for the holding of the Annual General Meeting or General Meeting or date as may be determined by the Board from time to time;
 - (iii) if insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the Board of Elected Directors the candidates validly nominated are deemed to be elected as Elected Directors and further nominations may be received at the Annual General Meeting or General Meeting;

- (iv) if the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates validly nominated are deemed to be elected; and
 - (v) if the number of nominations for Elected Directors exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, then a ballot by postal vote shall be taken as provided by the Board and the ballot shall be counted by the Returning Officer.
- (c) The Board (or such Directors as shall hold office at the relevant time) shall have the power at any time and from time to time to appoint any Voting Member as a replacement Elected Director whenever the office of an Elected Director becomes vacant.
 - (d) The Board (or such Directors as shall hold office at the relevant time) shall have the power at any time and from time to time to appoint any Voting Member as an Elected Director in addition to the existing Elected Directors but so that the total number of Elected Directors shall not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with this Constitution.
 - (e) Subject to clause 10.3(f) and 10.3A(c), an Elected Director holds office for a term of 4 years unless the Elected Director vacates office before the expiry of that term.
